

You guarantee to not use our Services in connection with any activities that are illegal or violate any applicable local, state, national or international laws/regulations.

You ensure that the content you host within our network or the domain names you manage through NordName do not contain or redirect to websites hosted elsewhere that practise illegal activities or contain prohibited content or links to such.

Illegal activities and prohibited content include but are not included to:

- Activities that deceive minors into viewing material of sexual nature
- Activities that are used to send unsolicited emails (spam)
- Content that depicts minors engaged in an activity of sexual nature
- Content that is hateful, derogatory, defamatory or bigoted based on racial, ethnic or political grounds or which may otherwise cause or incite injury, damage or harm of any kind to any party
- Content that invades another person's privacy or property rights
- Content or activities that infringe the trademark, copyright, patent rights, trade secret or other intellectual property rights
- Content or activities that violate any applicable local, state, national or international law
- Content that advertises the sale of goods or services that are not legal or in breach of any national or international law
- Activities involving the unauthorized transfer of domain names from an ICANN accredited registrar or Registered Domain Holder

If you violate any of the aforementioned terms or are engaged in any other misleading or illegal activities, you agree that we may suspend, cancel, transfer or modify your use of domain names or Accessory Services without prior notice to you.

No refund will occur if any illegal activities or prohibited content leads to the suspension, transfer or other loss of your domain name.
